Memory Verse

Whoever has the Son has life;
whoever does not have the Son of God
does not have life.
1 John 5:12

Our VISION:

Is to serve as the heart, hands,
and feet of Christ by...

- * strengthening our personal relationship with Christ daily
- * growing internally within our church family, and
- * connecting externally throughout our community and our world.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

* GREETING

CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Chris Scheer, Liturgist

Leader: This day revives in us memories of loved ones who are no more. What happiness we shared when they walked among us. What joy, when, loving and being loved, we lived our lives together.

People: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Leader: Months or years may have passed, and still we feel near to them. Our hearts yearn for them. Though the bitter grief has softened, a duller pain abides; for the place where once they stood is empty now. The links of life are broken, but the links of love and longing cannot break.

People: Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

Leader: We see them now with the eye of memory, their faults forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So does goodness live, and weakness fade from sight. We remember them with gratitude and bless their names.

People: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Leader: And we remember as well the members who but yesterday were part of our congregation and community. To all who cared for us and labored for all people, we pay tribute. May we prove worthy of carrying on the tradition of our faith, for now the task is ours.

People: Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

Leader: We give you thanks that they now live and reign with you. As a great crowd of witness, they surround us with their blessings and offer you hymns of praise and thanksgiving.

All: They are alive for ever more. Amen

Rev. George Topper: A retired United Methodist pastor with seven appointments in 31 years of service in the North Texas Conference, George joined the staff of First United Methodist Garland in 1992 as Pastor for the Homebound. In this role, he makes sure homebound members remain connected to the church and continue to feel like and be seen as a vital part of the congregation. George also teaches a Sunday School class that bears his name. Born and raised in Wichita Falls, George is a 1943 graduate of Wichita Falls High School. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from East Texas State University (now Texas A&M Commerce) and a Masters from Scarritt College for Christian Workers in Nashville, Tenn. George has a daughter, Jo Lynn Ellzey, granddaughters Stacy Clark and Kellie Hunter, and great grandchildren Trevor Petty, Chelsea Petty, Willow Hunter, Dylan Clark and Ian Hunter. George and his wife Clara were married more than 61 years before she passed in June 2008.

PPRC: PPRC will have a brief meeting today after church in the Chapel.
